SCROLL DOWN

The screenshot shows the official Canadian Government website for applying for an Electronic Travel Authorization (eTA). At the top, there is a search bar labeled 'Search IRCC' and a navigation menu. The breadcrumb trail reads: Canada.ca > Immigration and citizenship > Visit Canada > Electronic Travel Authorization (eTA). The main heading is 'Electronic Travel Authorization (eTA): How to apply'. Below this, there are four numbered steps: 1. About the process, 2. Who can apply, 3. How to apply (highlighted in dark blue), and 4. After you apply. A warning icon indicates that starting April 1, 2022, pre-entry tests are no longer required for fully vaccinated travellers entering Canada by land, air, or water. A language selection menu is visible, with 'English' selected. At the bottom, there is a prominent dark blue button labeled 'Apply for an eTA'. Red arrows point from the text 'Tryk for at fortsætte' to this button.

Important reminders – apply for an eTA

Protect yourself from eTA scams

If you stay longer than allowed, or work or study in Canada without the right permit, you could be committing fraud. If someone tells you to misrepresent or lie about your intentions, they're putting you at risk.

Learn how to protect yourself from fraud.

One person at a time

You can only apply and pay for one person at a time. For example, for a family of three, you will need to complete and submit the form three times.

An eTA doesn't allow you to work in Canada

Most people need a work permit to work in Canada. If we approve your work permit, we'll automatically issue you an eTA. You don't need to apply separately for an eTA.

Find out if you need a work permit.

Du kan kun betale for én person ad gangen.
