The screenshot shows the final step of the Zimbabwe Online Immigration Declaration process. At the top, a black bar contains a blurred profile picture. Below it, a green status bar says "Ready to check-in" with a green arrow icon. The main text reads "You are cleared to travel from [blurred] until [blurred]". An orange box with a warning icon contains an "IMPORTANT NOTICE" about the validity of the electronic travel authorization (90 days) and the permitted length of stay (determined by immigration authorities, typically 30 days). Below this, a white box with an information icon states: "Present this QR code at the visa checkpoint when entering/leaving the country. You cannot travel without a valid QR code first." A large QR code is displayed in the center. Below the QR code, a note states: "This QR Code acts as a digital pass for visa processing. The government reserves the right to approve or deny entry at the time of visa control." At the bottom, there is a dropdown menu labeled "Information about this application" and two buttons: "Print approval letter" (with a printer icon) and "Back". A red arrow points from the text "Tästä voit tulostaa vahvistusviestin." to the "Print approval letter" button.
