Before you travel to New Zealand

All travellers must complete and submit a New Zealand Traveller Declaration. This includes citizens and permanent residents of New Zealand, and children and infants.

Please allow 10 minutes to do this.

Your declaration will be automatically saved and a link will be emailed - you can use this link to return to your saved declaration.

To complete your declaration you will need

- ▶ Your flight number and date of arrival to New Zealand
- ▶ The passport you are entering New Zealand on
- ▶ To list the countries you have visited in the last 14 days
- ▶ Your contact details in New Zealand
- ▶ Details of a person who can be your emergency contact.

The image shows a mobile application interface for the New Zealand Traveller Declaration. At the top, there is a header bar with the title "New Zealand Traveller Declaration". Below the header, there is a section for "Travellers" which includes a field for "Your reference number:". Below this, there is a section for "Tasks" which lists several tasks to be completed. The tasks are: "Add passport details", "Add trip details", "Add emergency contact information", "Add contact tracing information", and "Provide travel information". The first two tasks are marked with a green checkmark, indicating they are completed. The remaining three tasks are marked with a radio button, indicating they are not yet completed. A red arrow points to the "Add emergency contact information" task, indicating it is the next step to be completed.
