The screenshot shows a digital interface for the Zimbabwe Online Immigration Declaration. At the top, a black bar contains a blurred profile picture. Below it, a green button says "Ready to check-in" with a green arrow icon. The text "You are cleared to travel from [blurred] until [blurred]" is displayed. An orange box with a warning icon contains an "IMPORTANT NOTICE" about the validity of the electronic travel authorization (90 days) and the permitted length of stay (determined by immigration authorities, typically 30 days). Below this, an information icon and text state: "Present this QR code at the visa checkpoint when entering/leaving the country. You cannot travel without a valid QR code first." A large QR code is centered on the screen. Below the QR code, text explains: "This QR Code acts as a digital pass for visa processing. The government reserves the right to approve or deny entry at the time of visa control." At the bottom, there is a dropdown menu labeled "Information about this application" and two buttons: "Print approval letter" (with a printer icon) and "Back". A red arrow points from the text "Här kan du skriva ut godkännandebrevet" to the "Print approval letter" button.
